

"Leap" INTO ENVIRONMENTAL 4-H PROJECTS IN 2011!

THE NVOEP CAN HELP...

What is the NVOEP?

The Niobrara Valley Outdoor Education Partnership (NVOEP) is a group of enthusiastic and dedicated outdoor professionals from over ten organizations who work together to bring learning opportunities to the communities in the Niobrara River Valley.

The NVOEP can provide project leadership in the following areas:

- Amphibians
- Birds
- Entomology
- Entrepreneurship
- Environmental Conservation
- Fishing
- Forestry
- Nature-based Clover Kid & School Enrichment programs
- Photography (nature)
- Range
- Shooting Sports
- Wildlife Conservation & Habitat

Be watching the 4-H newsletter for details on upcoming skill days, project work sessions, and service project ideas. Or, you can contact Michelle Garwood at the Niobrara Council to inquire about a speaker for your club or a project leader. Michelle is located at the Niobrara Council Office, 280 N Main, 376-2793 or garwood@niobraracouncil.org. A list of available facilities (such as the Niobrara Valley Preserve) and resources (many can be checked out free of charge) is available at the Niobrara Council website at <http://niobraracouncil.org/>.
